

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GOVERNOR ANNOUNCES VICTIMS OF CRIME ACT GRANT AWARDS

Charleston – Governor Patrick Morrisey announced that he has awarded $17,178,347 in Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) grant funds to eighty-one (81) projects. These funds will be used to provide direct services like counseling, personal advocacy, court advocacy, client transportation, and support services to victims of crimes including domestic violence, sexual violence, child abuse, and elder abuse. These funds will also support assistance to victims as they move through the criminal justice system.

These funds are administered by the Justice and Community Services Section of the West Virginia Division of Administrative Services.

Funds were awarded to the following:

A Child's Place CASA, LTD.

$50,480

The program serves court-appointed, abused, and neglected children (ages birth to 18) within Brooke and Hancock counties.

Contact: Rhonda Stubbs
Phone: 304-737-4444
Email: childsplacecasa@comcast.net

Barbour County Commission

$38,856

The program serves victims in Barbour County focusing on trauma-informed, victim-centered support for at least 175 victims, especially underserved populations.

Contact: Andrew Phillips
Phone: 304-457-1811
Email: aphillips@barbourcountywv.org

Branches Domestic Violence Shelter of Huntington, WVA, Inc. $678,753

The program sustains emergency shelter and outreach services across Cabell, Lincoln, Mason, Putnam, and Wayne counties. The project provides crisis intervention, legal support, safety planning, and mental health counseling, with a focus on regional collaboration and trauma-informed care.

Contact: Amanda McComas
Phone: 304-529-2382
Email: mcomas@branchesdvs.org

Burlington United Methodist Family Services, Inc. $92,792

The program serves child victims of maltreatment, ages 3 to 17, including individuals affected by physical abuse, sexual abuse, drug endangerment, neglect, online solicitation, or witnessing severe violence. The primary service area covers Hampshire, Hardy, and Mineral counties, with active plans of expanding into Grant and Pendleton counties.

Contact: Amber Talley
Phone: 304-788-7720
Email: atalley@bumfs.org

Cabell County Commission $226,906

The program provides immediate crisis intervention, court orientation, and navigation assistance for victims of crime throughout Cabell County, through the Cabell County Victims Assistance Division hosted within the Cabell County Prosecuting Attorney's Office.

Contact: Jason Spears
Phone: 304-526-8653
Email: jspears@cabellcounty.org

CASA For Children, Inc. $196,447

The program serves court-removed children from birth to age 18 within Ohio, Marshall, Wetzel, and Tyler counties.

Contact: Susan Harrison
Phone: 304-233-0333
Email: executivedirector@wvcasaforchildren.com

CASA For Kids, Inc. $178,858

The program delivers services to court-removed, traumatized children, ages birth to 18, within Monongalia, Preston, and Tucker counties.

Contact: Tim Berry
Phone: 304-599-1087
Email: tim@casaforkidsmpc.org

CASA of Marion County, Inc.$91,077

The program provides support to child abuse victims through volunteer advocacy, placement stabilization, and kinship assistance throughout Marion County.

Contact: Amber Fancher
Phone: 304-366-4198
Email: director@casaofmarion.org

CASA of New River$82,951

The program sustains court-appointed advocate infrastructure for child victims within Raleigh County.

Contact: Kristi W. Dumas
Phone: 304-278-3338
Email: drdumas@casaofnewriver.onmicrosoft.com

CASA of the Eastern Panhandle, Inc.$434,680

The program provides foundational support for core victim advocacy, supervised visitation, and family stabilization to protect child victims of abuse and neglect through Berkeley, Jefferson, and Morgan counties.

Contact: Beth McCoy
Phone: 304-263-5100
Email: beth@mycasaep.org

CASA of the Greenbrier Valley, Inc.$102,292

The program provides advocacy services for abused and neglected children across Greenbrier, Pocahontas, Monroe, and Summers counties.

Contact: Lori Carter
Phone: 304-667-0990
Email: casa29@casaofgv.org

Change, Incorporated$124,782

The program serves child abuse and neglect victims from birth to age 18 across Brooke and Hancock counties in the Northern Panhandle.

Contact: Jim Boniey
Phone: 304-797-7733
Email: jimboniey@changeinc.org

Change, Incorporated$57,534

The program supports The Lighthouse Domestic Violence Shelter and Advocacy Center in Weirton, West Virginia.

Contact: Jim Boniey
Phone: 304-797-7733
Email: jimboniey@changeinc.org

Charleston Area Medical Center$284,416

The program delivers trauma-informed forensic medical evaluations, neutral forensic interviews, family advocacy, and therapy services in Jackson, Kanawha, Putnam, and Roane counties.

Contact: Maureen Runyon
Phone: 304-388-2652
Email: maureen.runyon@vandaliahealth.org

Child & Youth Advocacy Center, Inc.$206,105

The program serves victims of abuse and their non-offending caregivers in Greenbrier, Monroe, and Pocahontas counties.

Contact: Francesca Zarcone
Phone: 304-645-4668
Email: francesca@cyacwv.org

Child Protect of Mercer County, Inc.$146,000

The program provides CAC-based advocacy, forensic interviewing, therapy, and medical services for child victims of crime in Mercer County.

Contact: Lindsay Pack
Phone: 304-425-2710
Email: lindsay@mercerchildprotect.com

CHILDLAW Services, Inc.$164,371

The program provides holistic, trauma-informed legal representation, advocacy, education, prevention programming, therapeutic services, and coordinated referrals to community resources for child victims in Mercer, McDowell, Kanawha, and Boone counties.

Contact: Monica O. Holliday
Phone: 304-425-9973
Email: monica.childlawservices@gmail.com

Children's Home Society of West Virginia$165,297

The program, located within Victoria's House Child Advocacy Center, provides forensic interviews for child victims of abuse and neglect and family advocacy services for child victims and their non-offending caregivers in Berkeley, Jefferson, and Morgan counties.

Contact: Jenna Orsini
Phone: 304-265-4658
Email: jorsini@childhswv.org

Comprehensive Women's Service Council, Inc.$585,503

The program supports essential services to promote victim safety, healing, and long-term stability in Raleigh, Fayette, Nicholas, and Summers counties.

Contact: Regina Thomas
Phone: 304-255-2559
Email: rthomas.awaywv@gmail.com

Contact Huntington, Inc.$556,683

The program supports 'Serving Sexual Violence and Stalking Victims in Southern West Virginia' through direct advocacy, crisis intervention, and accompaniment for victims and secondary survivors of sexual assault, stalking, and sex trafficking across Cabell, Lincoln, Logan, Mason, Mingo, and Wayne counties.

Contact: Melinda Perron
Phone: 304-523-3447
Email: mperron@contacthuntington.com

Cornerstone Family Interventions, Inc.$152,350

The program coordinates trauma-informed services for child victims of abuse, adult survivors of childhood sexual abuse, non-offending caregivers, and underserved victims of crime in Boone and Lincoln counties through forensic interviews, victim advocacy, case coordination, trauma-focused mental health services, caregiver support, referrals, follow-up services, and multidisciplinary team collaboration.

Contact: Monica Ballard-Booth
Phone: 304-369-3972
Email: monicaballard@cfiwwv.org

Eastern Panhandle Empowerment Center$689,487

The program provides services to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, and human trafficking in the Eastern Panhandle.

Contact: Mckensie Sanders
Phone: 304-263-8522
Email: mckensie@swcinc.org

Family Counseling Connection, Inc.$335,624

The programs provide specialized trauma counseling to survivors of major crimes in Kanawha, Putnam, Boone, Jackson, and Clay counties. Services include individual, couple, and family therapy, counseling, crisis intervention, criminal justice support and advocacy, hotline and crime victim's compensation, VINE, and other referral services.

Contact: Frank S. Fazzolari
Phone: 304-340-3676
Email: ffazzolari@tccwv.org

Family Crisis Center, Inc.$327,118

The program provides trauma-informed, accessible services to survivors of intimate partner violence, sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, and human trafficking across Mineral, Grant, Hardy, Hampshire, and Pendleton counties.

Contact: Sonya Fazzalore
Phone: 304-788-6061
Email: fcc911@familycrisisinc.org

Family Crisis Intervention Center Region V$388,359

The program provides trauma-informed, direct services and allowable core advocacy to victims and survivors of domestic violence, stalking, and human trafficking across Jackson, Ritchie, Tyler, Pleasants, Wirt, and Wood counties.

Contact: Emily S. Larkins
Phone: 304-428-2333
Email: emilylarkins4@gmail.com

Family Refuge Center, Inc.$561,344

The program provides rural mobile advocacy and transition services, along with continuous crisis intervention for survivors of interpersonal violence in Greenbrier, Monroe, and Pocahontas counties.

Contact: Stephanie Moore
Phone: 304-645-6324
Email: stephaniem@familyrefugecenter.org

Greenbrier County Commission$49,536

The program provides comprehensive case management, crisis navigation, and judicial path mapping for crime victims throughout the local trial cycle in Greenbrier County through the Victim Services Coordinator located within the Greenbrier County Prosecuting Attorney's Office.

Contact: Nicole Campbell
Phone: 304-647-6616
Email: nicole.graybeal@greenbriercounty.net

Greenbrier County Commission$50,214

The program provides a law enforcement-based victim advocate for victims of crime, located within the Greenbrier County Sheriff's Office, that provides crisis stabilization, rights notifications, and supportive resources during an active investigation.

Contact: Ronald B. Baker
Phone: 304-647-6678
Email: rbbaker@gbrsd.com

Hancock County Commission$181,869

The program provides support and assistance to all victims of crime in Hancock, Brooke, and Ohio counties.

Contact: Jennifer Mollick
Phone: 304-234-3896
Email: jgruberva@yahoo.com

Harmony House, Inc.$176,845

The program provides cost-free, trauma-informed intervention services to child abuse victims and their non-offending caregivers in Ohio and Marshall counties.

Contact: Jay C. Jack
Phone: 304-230-2205
Email: hhdirector@harmonyhousecac.com

Harmony Mental Health, Inc.$277,875

The program provides access to trauma-focused outpatient behavioral health treatments, psychological evaluations, and telehealth linkages in Calhoun, Jackson, Kanawha, Pleasants, Ritchie, Roane, Tyler, Wetzel, Wirt, and Wood counties.

Contact: Felicia Bush
Phone: 304-917-4741
Email: felicia@harmonymh.org

Harrison County CASA Program, Inc.$130,368

The program provides court-appointed, trauma-informed volunteer advocacy to represent the best interest of child victims of abuse and neglect, ages 0 to 18, in Harrison County.

Contact: Alisha Madia
Phone: 304-623-5749
Email: casa@hcwvcasa.org

Harrison County Child Abuse Task Force, Inc.$328,127

The program provides a centralized, child-focused environment for forensic interviews, family advocacy, and specialized support services throughout Harrison, Doddridge, Taylor, and Barbour counties.

Contact: Melissa McKeen
Phone: 304-622-0375
Email: missy@cacwv.com

HOPE, Inc.$584,476

The program provides continuous, trauma-informed crisis intervention across Doddridge, Gilmer, Harrison, Lewis, and Marion counties, serving victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, and underserved populations. The program emphasizes outreach, victim support, awareness activities, legal advocacy, and collaboration with legal agencies, ensuring compliance and data tracking to enhance service delivery and long-term victim recovery.

Contact: Michele McCord
Phone: 304-367-1100
Email: mmccord@hopeincwv.org

Jackson County Commission$44,814

The program provides a dedicated full-time Victim Advocate that assists with direct advocacy, crisis intervention, and court accompaniment for crime victims in Jackson County.

Contact: David Kyle Moore
Phone: 304-373-2323
Email: kyle.moore@jacksoncountywv.com

Jefferson County Commission$114,140

The program, operated with the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office, provides comprehensive and compassionate support to crime victims and their families throughout Jefferson County.

Contact: Adam Ward
Phone: 304-728-3243
Email: award@jeffcowv.gov

Just For Kids, Inc.$341,077

The program delivers comprehensive, trauma-informed, and victim-centered support to child victims of abuse and their non-offending caregivers in Raleigh and Fayette counties through forensic interviewing, family advocacy, trauma-focused mental health therapy, and multidisciplinary team coordination to reduce trauma, support healing, and improve legal outcomes.

Contact: Dr. Deanee' Johnson
Phone: 304-255-4834
Email: mdjohnson@jfkww.com

Kanawha County Commission$150,000

The program, located within the Kanawha County Prosecuting Attorney's Office, provides victim outreach, safety planning, judicial accompaniment, and youth support through prosecution-based victim advocacy within Kanawha County to improve response times and service coordination for victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, and underserved populations.

Contact: Ken Bannon
Phone: 304-357-0300
Email: kbannon@kanawhaprosecutor.com

Kanawha County Commission$108,387

The program, located within the Kanawha County Sheriff's Office, provides crisis intervention, court accompaniment, elder abuse response, juvenile tracking, and legal aid for diverse victims across Kanawha County. In addition to supporting county investigations, the Kanawha County Sheriff's Office acts as a foundational safety net by providing essential advocacy coverage to 13 municipal police departments that lack the resources to fund their own advocate positions.

Contact: Ana Pile
Phone: 304-357-0200
Email: anapile@kcsso.us

Legal Aid of West Virginia, Inc.$780,152

The program funds the Crime Victims' Legal Assistance Program, which delivers free, trauma-informed civil legal representation and victim rights advocacy across all 55 counties in West Virginia.

Contact: Elizabeth Wehner
Phone: 304-343-3013 x2134
Email: ewehner@lawv.net

Logan County Child Advocacy Center, Inc.$172,605

The program provides comprehensive, child- and youth-focused programs to provide a safe, child-friendly environment for the investigation of child abuse and neglect cases across Logan and Mingo counties.

Contact: Beth Cook
Phone: 304-792-6261
Email: staff@lmcac.org

Logan County Commission$50,411

The program delivers critical, prosecution-based crisis intervention and case navigation services across rural Logan County. By maintaining a dedicated advocate workforce, the program bridges critical gaps during criminal prosecution, serving as a stable source of comfort and case orientation to alleviate victim re-traumatization.

Contact: David Wandling
Phone: 304-792-8670
Email: dwandling@lccwv.us

Logan County Commission$37,827

The program delivers immediate, 24/7 law enforcement-based crisis stabilization and support services across Logan County. The program bridges severe service gaps by providing early crisis intervention, legal notifications, and dedicated transportation to ensure victims can safely navigate the investigation and prosecution phases.

Contact: Michael Lafauci
Phone: 304-792-8590
Email: mlafauci@lcsowv.us

Marion County Child Advocacy Center, Inc.$165,299

The program provides a safe, family-centered, and trauma-informed environment for child victims of abuse in Marion County. This program delivers comprehensive services at no cost to victims or their families, focusing on providing a safe space, coordinated multidisciplinary response, forensic interviewing, medical evaluation, mental health services, and advocacy.

Contact: Michael Baker
Phone: 304-333-3936
Email: marioncountycac@yahoo.com

Marion County Commission$66,000

The program, operating within the Prosecuting Attorney's Office, provides rural outreach, trauma-informed interventions, elder abuse prevention, court support, and legal aid for victims of crime throughout Marion County.

Contact: Jeffrey L. Freeman
Phone: 304-367-5380
Email: jfreeman@marioncountywv.com

Mason County Commission$48,000

The program provides specialized, prosecution-based crisis intervention and case navigation services across rural Mason County.

Contact: Seth S. Gaskins
Phone: 304-675-5734
Email: sgaskins@masoncountypers.org

Mercer County Commission$189,944

The program delivers trauma-informed continuous support, crisis intervention, and legal notification services to crime victims and their families across rural Mercer County.

Contact: David A. Pfeifer
Phone: 304-487-8445
Email: david.pfeifer@mercerprosecutorwv.gov

Mineral County Court Appointed Special Advocates Program, Inc.$140,525

The program implements court-appointed, trauma-informed volunteer advocacy to represent the best interests of child victims of abuse and neglect throughout rural Mineral County.

Contact: Dayla Harvey
Phone: 304-788-0068
Email: vc4mincocasa@gmail.com

Mingo County Commission$30,899

The program sustains a dedicated, prosecution-based victim advocate position to guide crime survivors through complex court frameworks in Mingo County. Sustaining this advocate infrastructure prevents critical criminal case dismissals caused by a lack of victim participation, ensuring victims are fully oriented regarding their constitutional rights.

Contact: Leigh Ann Ray
Phone: 304-235-0338
Email: lwells@mingocountywv.com

Mingo County Commission$25,248

The program sustains a dedicated, law enforcement-based victim advocate position to deliver immediate crisis intervention and legal rights navigation from the initial onset of criminal investigations. Embedding an advocate directly within the department ensures early trauma-informed interaction and reducing case dismissals caused by a lack of victim knowledge or participation.

Contact: Leigh Ann Ray
Phone: 304-235-0338
Email: lwells@mingocountywv.com

Monongalia County Child Advocacy Center$262,672

This program provides direct services for child abuse victims to promote resiliency and decrease the costly negative long-term effects of child abuse. Services include forensic interviewing, family advocacy, and therapy. Services are provided by the Monongalia County Child Advocacy Center in collaboration with a multi-disciplinary team of professionals. The project addresses the physical, emotional, and behavioral hardships suffered by child abuse victims in Monongalia County.

Contact: Dr. Laura Capage
Phone: 304-598-0344
Email: lcapage@comcast.net

Monongalia County Commission$137,226

The program provides support and information services to victims through advocacy, support, crisis intervention, referrals, crime compensation, notifications, impact statements, and court presentations throughout Monongalia County.

Contact: Gabrielle Mucciola
Phone: 304-291-7250
Email: apamucciola@gmail.com

Mothers Against Drunk Driving$47,845

The program helps develop and implement strategies to assist the underserved population of impaired driving victims in all 55 counties in West Virginia. The program provides direct comprehensive supportive services to victims of impaired driving including an assessment of the victim's needs, emotional support, referrals, opportunities to participate in the criminal justice process, and educational information for family members.

Contact: Joanne Sharff
Phone: 410-964-5757 ext. 2454
Email: joanne.sharff@madd.org

Mountain Cap of WV, Inc.$83,329

The program provides a child-friendly facility to centralize investigative and treatment responses to child abuse and neglect throughout Upshur and Lewis counties.

Contact: Laura McDaniels
Phone: 304-473-0020
Email: lmcdaniels@mountaincapwv.org

Nicholas County Family Resource Network$110,256

The program provides a safe, child-friendly space for child victims of abuse, neglect, drug-exposure, and other crimes within Nicholas and Webster counties.

Contact: Michelle Short
Phone: 304-872-4707
Email: nicholasfrn@frontier.com

North Star Child Advocacy Center, Inc.$221,591

The program provides a child-friendly, safe and neutral environment where law enforcement and child protective service workers can observe forensic interviews with children who are alleged victims of abuse in Calhoun, Pleasants, Ritchie, Wirt, and Wood counties.

Contact: Julie Nutter
Phone: 304-917-4437 ext. 110
Email: j.nutter@northstarcac.org

Ohio County Commission$40,215

This program funds a Victim Coordinator position within the Ohio County Prosecutor's Office to ensure all victims of crime in Ohio County receive comprehensive support, information, and advocacy throughout the criminal justice process.

Contact: Shawn Turak
Phone: 304-234-3631
Email: sturak@wvocpa.org

Preston County Commission$59,390

This program provides comprehensive assistance and support to victims of crime throughout all stages of the criminal justice process in Preston County.

Contact: James E. Shay, Jr.
Phone: 304-329-1885
Email: jshay@prestoncountywv.gov

Putnam County Commission$77,292

The program establishes a direct line of communication between crime victims and the prosecutors handling their files, ensuring that survivors remain active and informed participants throughout the judicial process. The Victim Services Division resolves a critical gap in Putnam County by serving as a centralized single point of contact to maintain a continuous wrap-around care model throughout long-term legal recovery journeys.

Contact: Kristina Raynes
Phone: 304-586-0205
Email: kraynes@putnamwv.org

Putnam County Commission$35,127

The program maintains critical on scene and early-stage victim advocacy infrastructure to ensure crime survivors are connected to supportive networks from the moment law enforcement interfaces with an incident within Putnam County. Victim Service Advocacy bridges immense field constraints by organizing safety plans, conducting community outreach, and establishing a warm handoff to community partners.

Contact: Chief Deputy Shane Shamblin
Phone: 304-586-0256
Email: sshamblin@putnamwv.org

Randolph County Children's Advocacy Center, Inc.$121,808

This program provides essential services for victims of child abuse through forensic interviewing and advocacy services across Randolph and Tucker counties. RTCAC provides direct services to children and families including crisis intervention and forensic interviews, needs assessments, referrals, accompaniment to court, medical, and other appointments, and ongoing support and advocacy through phone and in-person contact.

Contact: Margot Evick
Phone: 304-630-2214
Email: director@rtcac.com

Randolph County Commission$59,430

The program provides assistance to survivors who face complex emotional trauma, financial hardships, and the overwhelming confusion of court protocols to include support, information, and advocacy throughout the judicial process for victims of crime in Randolph County.

Contact: Michael Parker
Phone: 304-636-2053
Email: mparker@rcpww.com

Rape & Domestic Violence Information Center, Inc.$684,453

The program provides comprehensive, trauma-informed services to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, and human trafficking across Monongalia, Preston and Taylor counties.

Contact: Alexia Jennings
Phone: 304-292-5100
Email: ajennings@rdvic.org

REACHH Family Resource Center, Inc.$69,178

The program provides child advocacy services to address child abuse, neglect, and trauma through crisis response, forensic interviews, family advocacy, mental health referrals, transportation, and system gap mitigation through multidisciplinary coordination, ensuring legal compliance and confidentiality to serve vulnerable children and families effectively throughout Summers County.

Contact: Josie McNeely
Phone: 304-756-5019
Email: josie.mcneely@reachhfrfc.org

Roane County Commission$23,700

This program provides victim advocacy to protect crime survivors and ensure their active participation in the local justice system across Roane County.

Contact: Daniel Minardi
Phone: 304-927-2091
Email: dminardi@court.state.wv.us

STOP Abusive Family Environments, Inc.$411,171

This program assists and supports victims of domestic violence, sexual violence, elder abuse and human trafficking across McDowell, Mercer, and Wyoming counties.

Contact: Patricia Daniels
Phone: 681-201-2138
Email: patengland82@hotmail.com

STOP The Hurt, Inc.$82,017

The program provides a coordinated, child-focused response to allegations of child abuse to reduce trauma for children and families while supporting effective investigations and prosecutions through forensic interviews, crisis intervention, trauma-focused mental health referrals, family advocacy, court support, and cross-agency collaboration to help ensure children and non-offending caregivers in McDowell and Wyoming counties receive ongoing support throughout the investigative and healing process.

Contact: Brooke Bishop
Phone: 304-320-8775
Email: brookebishopsth@gmail.com

TEAM For WV Children, Inc.$509,821

The program provides court-based advocacy for child abuse victims across Boone, Cabell, Calhoun, Jackson, Kanawha, Lincoln, Mason, Putnam, Roane, and Wayne counties, emphasizing intensive case investigation, court reporting, disability advocacy, volunteer expansion, and legal compliance.

Contact: Kimberly Runyon Wilds
Phone: 304-523-9587
Email: kwilds@teamwv.org

Tug Valley Recovery Shelter Association, Inc.$235,271

The program provides victim advocacy, emergency shelter, legal support, court outreach, and resource linkages to victims of domestic violence, child abuse, sexual assault, and underserved populations in Logan and Mingo counties.

Contact: Kimberly Ryan
Phone: 304-235-6121
Email: k.s.ryan@hotmail.com

Upper Ohio Valley Sexual Assault Help Center, Inc.$267,894

The program provides crisis response, counseling, legal navigation, and community outreach across Brooke, Hancock, Ohio, Marshall, and Wetzel counties through victim advocacy, helpline support, referrals, mobile crisis response, public awareness, and trauma-informed programs.

Contact: Ashley Carpenter
Phone: 304-234-1783 ext. 120
Email: ashley@sexualassaulthelpcenter.com

Voices For Children Foundation$115,320

The program, Brighter Future, provides court-based advocacy for children affected by parental substance misuse in Pleasants, Ritchie, Wirt, and Wood counties.

Contact: Margaret Hoschar
Phone: 304-422-3390
Email: voicesforchildrencasa@gmail.com

West Virginia Child Abuse Network, Inc.$209,346

The program provides statewide child abuse response, training, and data infrastructure for 21 child advocacy centers throughout the state by enhancing forensic interviews, family advocacy, mental health, and data management, with a focus on trauma-informed, multidisciplinary child victim services.

Contact: Shiloh Woodard
Phone: 304-952-9408
Email: swoodard@wvcan.org

Wetzel County Commission$82,977

The program provides comprehensive support to child victims of abuse and their protective non-offending caregivers across Wetzel and Tyler counties.

Contact: Susan Scharf
Phone: 304-398-2311
Email: wetzel_tylercac@yahoo.com

Women's Aid in Crisis, Inc.$600,306

The program provides emergency shelter, crisis hotlines, outreach, and trauma interventions across Barbour, Braxton, Randolph, Tucker, Upshur, and Webster counties, addressing regional violence, service gaps, and systemic barriers, emphasizing safety, legal support, staff training, and compliance with federal and state laws, ensuring coordinated, victim-centered, and confidential services.

Contact: Jennifer Johnson
Phone: 304-636-8433
Email: director@wvcav.org

Wood County Commission$115,993

The program provides victim services, including crisis navigation, system accompaniment, and housing assistance, serving diverse victims with a focus on domestic violence and underserved populations in Wood County.

Contact: Toni Tiano
Phone: 304-481-6409
Email: tianoknopp@gmail.com

WV Coalition Against Domestic Violence, Inc.$249,844

The program provides direct legal services, emergency financial assistance, statewide housing coordination, and advocate orientation and re-orientation across four critical victim-centered projects designed to address systemic barriers to survival and independence throughout West Virginia.

Contact: Tonia Thomas
Phone: 304-965-3552
Email: tthomas@wvcadv.org

WV Division of Corrections & Rehabilitation$183,833

The program delivers specialized, post-conviction advocacy and system tracking across all 55 counties in West Virginia, focusing heavily on a pro-rated caseload structure to empower isolated survivors, clear practical system barriers, and establish continuous data pipelines.

Contact: David Farmer
Phone: 304-558-2036
Email: david.a.farmer@wv.gov

WV Foundation for Rape Info Services$256,728

The program enhances sexual assault response services statewide, focusing on training, system standardization, and expanding certified Sexual Assault Nurse Examiners (SANEs) and advocates through trauma-informed care, legal compliance, collaboration among agencies, and addressing rural healthcare gaps, with key activities including training, technical assistance, program expansion, and public awareness campaigns.

Contact: Nancy Hoffman
Phone: 304-366-9500
Email: wvfris@frontier.com

Wyoming County Commission$31,883

The program provides victims of Wyoming County with criminal justice and personal advocacy support services, crisis counseling, crime victim's compensation, and individual education on their rights as a victim of crime.

Contact: Kristie Houchins
Phone: 304-732-8000
Email: kristie.houchins@wyomingcountyprosecutor.com

Young Women's Christian Association of Wheeling WV$287,406

The program provides trauma-informed advocacy and supportive services for domestic violence victims throughout Ohio, Marshall, and Wetzel counties.

Contact: Jennifer Stevens
Phone: 304-232-0511 ext. 110
Email: fvppdirector@ywcawheeling.org

YWCA of Charleston West Virginia, Inc.$341,322

This program provides survivor-centered, trauma-informed services that increase safety, promote healing, support long-term stability for victims of domestic violence, stalking, and human trafficking across Kanawha, Boone, and Clay counties.

Contact: Julie Britton
Phone: 304-590-5837
Email: jbritton@ywcacharleston.org

Justice and Community Services contact:

Carolann Caudill
Justice Grants and Program Manager
Division of Administrative Services
Justice and Community Services
1124 Smith Street, Suite 3100
Charleston, WV 25301-1323
Phone: 304-352-2441
Email: Carolann.Caudill@wv.gov